EXPLANATORY NOTES

From 1998 to 2011 the Kanematsu Memorial Award was granted annually from the benevolent Fund established by Kanematsu Australia Ltd on the occasion of the company's centenary of business between Australia and Japan. The Fund was administered by a Board of Directors including two College representatives, one being the Chairman. The Directors decided that the Fund monies would continue to support research in a focused manner directed to research in the area of thrombosis and haemostasis. Future Awards will stay similarly focused for some time. In 2013 management of the Award and its funding passed to the RCPA Foundation.

1. Purpose

To support early-career investigators in research into thrombosis and haemostasis.

2. Funding source

RCPA Foundation Fund employing funds provided by Kanematsu.

3. Value

Number of awards and value will be advertised by the RCPA Foundation when applications open 1 February each year.

4. Payments

Usually provided as two payments to a nominated account, one at the commencement of the project and the second in the following year.
